LEXINGTON TRACK DELUGED

RAIN REDUCES ATTENDANCE AND DETRACTS FROM INTEREST IN SPORT.

Not a Favorite Succeeds in Scoring-Volume of Betting Light As Compared with Corresponding Days at Previous Meetings.

Lexington, Ky., September 15. — The comparatively few who were out for the second day of the Kentucky Association's fall meeting had little pleasure. There was too much rain and mud. The clouds that began gathering about the time the first race was over let loose just as the start for the third race was made and how it did pour. The starter, the judges, the timers, the jockeys, everybody save those who were in the clubhouse, grandstand and under the shed of the betting ring, were drenched to the skin. Mars Cassidy got so much water that he had to make an entire change of clothing. The track after the third race grew sloppier and sloppier as the afternoon passed and the rain continued in showers and drizzles. It will be a long time drying out.

The sharpshooters again got the money. The talent was frightfully out of line in its backings. The nearest approach to a winning favorite was Rogon, the second choice, which went to the front soon after the start in the third race and held Royal Capitive, the favorite, safe all the way.

Bob Co. was quite a surprise in the opener. He wan as he pleased. Balronia, the favorite, may have been a triffe short, but she seemingly calls for little at the best. Bash was not up to a race.

Betty Fuller was lucky to win the second race. Alooha had it apparently at her mercy when she ran out a sixteenth of a mile from home, darting from the inside to the extreme outside in the twinkling of an eye and not interfering with a single horse.

ran out a sixteenth of a mile from home, darting from the inside to the extreme outside in the twink-ling of an eye and not interfering with a single horse.

Ben Prior was in front nearly all the way in the fourth race and lasted to win by a nose from the fast gaining County Tax. Mack B. Eubanks led throughout in the fifth and had little trouble in stalling off the challenge of Sir Blaise. King Broomstick, well supported, was a false alarm. The biggest surprise of the day came in the closing dash, when Haldeman, running like a hound leading the pack, won by two lengths from Forehead, the favorite, with Otilo, a distant third. This was Haldeman's initial victory.

The betting was lighter than yesterday, the total amount handled being $22,609. On the second day last spring the total bet in the mutuels was $23,138 and in auctions $7,443. making an aggregate of $30,581, or $9,282 more than today, and on the second day of the meeting last fall the mutuels handled $22,685 and the auctions $9,206, a total of $31,981, or $9,282 more than today.

Starter Cassidy announced this afternoon that he had not intended yesterday to give jockey Hoffman the entire meeting as punishment for his antics at the post in the third race and the boy will be permitted to ride next Tuesday.

Jockey Eddie Taplin arrived today from Louisville and will accept mounts here. He announced his engagement to pilot Nadzu for H. G. Bedwell in the Endurance Stakes, to be run on the closing day at Churchill Downs.

Betty Fuller, which won the second race, was purchased by her present owner at a paddock sale held and will accept mounts here. He announced his engagement to pilot Nadzu for H. G. Bedwell in the Endurance Stakes, to be run on the closing day at Churchill Downs.

Betty Fuller, which won the second race, was purchased by her present owner at a paddock sale held at Latonia during the summer meeting for a nominal sum. She was lucky to get the verdict, for had Alooba kept straight the Joplin starter would have been an easy winner.

JOCKEY CLUB ATTITUDE ON LAUREL.

H. D. Brown, the race track promoter, announced yesterday that he positively would begin racing at Laurel, Md., on October 2. Brown has sent this information to the Canadian and western tracks and has begun to distribute stake books. The track at Laurel is nearly finished at an outlay of $250,000, and is well appointed. It is said on high turf authority that while the Jockey Club, in deference to the Pimlico management, will not grant an out and out liceuse to Brown, nor horsemen will be placed under the ban for competing for the $500 purses at Laurel. It is the opinion of leading racing men that Brown should not be handicapped or censured for providing sport in the shape of new tracks at Laurel and Havana, especially when owners and trainers can get no action in the state of New York. Brown's enterprise therefore will meet with tacit approval from the Jockey Club stewards, who will not discipline horsemen if they go to Laurel. Furthermore, Brown will operate his Maryland track under the auspices of the Southern Jockey Club, which exercises jurisdiction over the Florida tracks and the new $500,000 plant in Cuba. The Havana meeting, which opens about December 1, will be conducted on a big scale.—New York Sun.

JOCKEY BARRED FOR ROUGH RIDING.

Toronto, Ont., September 15.—Racing at Dufferin Park today was marked by stirring contests and close finishes. Jockey G. W. Carroll was barred from the grounds for rough riding on Horace E. in the sixth race. He cut across in front and bumped Mapleton, forcing him to his knees. Cullen was thrown, but rolled clear of the flying hoofs and escaped unhurt. A meeting of seven days, from October 3 to 10, will be held at Dufferin Park under the auspices of the Toronto Riding and Driving Club.

Among the horsemen that will ship to Laurel are Ed Trotter, E. W. Foulkes, M. Nicoll and P. Riley.

C. Grand fainted after the second race, owing to excessive reducing. He rode his engagement in the next race, but was excused for the remainder of the afternoon.

MONTREAL RACES RUN IN RAIN.

Mud Runners Get Chance at Blue Bonnets and the Layers Have a Profitable Day.

Montreal, Que., September 15.—Dull racing was witnessed at Blue Bonnets today. Heavy rains that set in during the early morning made the track deep and a heavy drizzle that fell all afternoon made the course anything but a pleasant place. Despite this a surprisingly large crowd was in attendance and speculation was keen. It was one of the few opportunities on the circuit this season for horses that fancy heavy going. The public were a bit off in their calculations, as only two favorites won. Both of them were at odds-on in the betting and the layers had a good day.

There were two sneeplechness on the program, one for three-year-olds at one mile and a half, and another over the two-mile course. Andy Chisholm. William Garth's promising fencer, won the former in a canter, while old Thistichale found the soft going just to his liking and scored by a long margin. The Provincial Nursery, one of the fixtures of the fall meetings at Blue Bonnets, and the attraction of the program with local race-goers, brought out a field of three. Two of them were by 'Frisco' Gardner's old campaingner, Floral King, and one of them Floral Crown, after being virtually left at dozen lengths. All three of the starters ran greenly, the favorite, Fred Cowans, bolting to the outer fence entering the homestretch, The latter is a good looker and with a bit more racing may develop into a fair youngster.

The closest finish of the afternoon came with the running of the first race, which called for two-year-olds, Congressman Junfes, after leaving the post to a slow break, closed a big gap and, coming with a good burst of speed at the end, got up to beat Sadde Shapiro half a length.

Jockey Byrne was taken sick after his finish on Aldran and was forced to pass up his engagement on Springmass in the seventh race.

The following have made known their intention of shipping from here to Toronto to take part in the Woodbine meeting: A. G. Blakeley, J. W. Burttschell, Albert Simons, Beverwyck Stable, William Garth, J. W. Flynn, August Belmont, J. J. Hy

LOUISVILLE TRACKS AGAIN FAST,

Louisville Tracks again Fast.

Louisville, Ky., September 15.—Improved track conditions at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park this morning enabled many of the fleetest horses in training here for the eighteen-days fall meeting, beginning September 25, to make fast time in trails. The best work was by Bob Farley, from Pat Dunne's stable. He went a half in 49½, going the first three furlongs in 36. Another good move was by Madman, from the stable of H. G. Bedwell. He went three furlongs in 37½. Other work-outs were as follows:

Adams Express—Half mile in 50½; first three-eighths in 37.

Bettie Sue—Half mile in 51½, easily.
Carlton G.—Half mile in 51½, easily.
Eye White—Five-eighths in 1:06.
Harrigan—Half mile in 50½
Linu Gafney—Half mile in 50½
Linu Gafney—Half mile in 50½
Jinu Gafney—Half mi

Express. Sticker—Three-eighths in 34, easily. Stinger—Three-eighths in 39, cantering. Turret—Three-eighths in 37, cantering. Volthorpe—Three-quarters in 1:19‡; is ready.

Volthorpe—Three-quarters in 1:193; is ready.

H. G. Bedwell has obtained from R. J. Mackenzie second call on jockey Eddie Taplin, who formerly rode for the western turfman. The following is a revised list of the Bedwell horses, sixteen in number, now at Churchill Downs: Nadzu, Prince Ahmed, Righteasy, Spohn, Knight Deck, Madman, Berkeley, revised list of the Bedwell horses, sixteen in number, now at Churchil Downs: Nadzu, Prince Ahmed, Righteasy, Spohn, Knight Deck, Madman, Berkeley, Pajaroita, Force, Richard Reed, Belle Clem, Rue, Eddie Graney, Pennyroyal, Sticker and Lochiel, The grand appearance of the Bedwell horses is causing favorable comment from other trainers at the Downs and a prospectus season on the Kentucky circuit seems in prospect for Mr. Bedwell.

R. Harris arrived from the north to consult O. A. Bianchi, trainer and racing associate of James McManus, in reference to securing a contract on jockey George Archibald to ride in France for the French stable whose horses are being trained by Galen Brown. Mr. Bianchi referred Mr. Harris to Archibald, who is at Lexington, where the McManus horses are being trained under the direction of Steve Judge. Mr. Bianchi intimated that Archibald will go abroad on account of his increased weight. He is forced to reject many mounts by reason of the Kentucky scale of weights.

The only arrival today at the Downs was the string of Frank Perkins. He came from Latonia with three two-year-olds, Dahomey Boy, Gay and Madam Phelps.

Theodore Abadie has concluded to send no horses to Lexington. Falcada and his other racers, including Felix, are doing so well here that he has decided to await the opening of the season at the Downs. Harry Jones, who was injured while riding on the fair circuit, has discarded his crutches. He thinks he will ride during the Downs meeting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Prix Du Velay, run at Enghien, in France, Thursday, was won by J. E. Widener's East River, Jockey W. Muicahey is at the Mountain Valley Hotel, Hot Springs, Ark., and is in good health again.

W. K. Vanderbilt's Polonaise finished second in the Prix du Bac at Maisons-Laffitte, in France, yesterday.

Jesterday.

John Busch, foreman for Mose Goldblatt for some years, died at Buffalo, N. Y., of consumption September S. A subscription by horsemen for his benefit last summer had been exhausted and he died penniless at the Eric County hospital.

The layers in line at Coeur d'Alene include Henry Freysenhausen, W. H. Canning, Gus Blum, Sam Bradley, W. R. Engstrom, Frank Bain, "One-Two-Three' Martin, Joe Rose, John Clancy, Will Hall, W. Armstrong, Barney Boyce, S. A. Clopton and George North.

John Myrick, Jr., was yesterday arrested at Los Angeles on a charge of violation of the Walker-Young anti-betting law. He is charged with operating a poolroom. It is the first case of the kind to develop under the California law and may afford a test of its constitutionality.

MAR-EURG was taken back and saved to the stretch turn, then moved up fast into a decisive lead and won in a canier. CANTEM ran in forward contention throughout and finished gamely. REENE W. closed a gap and finished with a rush. TIFLIS tired and quit in the final furlong after running prominently to the stretch. Overweights—Bonnie Bard, 1 pound.

der and, as might be expected, favorites fared badly. The races were made up from the cheapest class of horses, it being the policy of the management to treat all classes of owners with impartiality. The ring had a number of good breaks and quit winner for the first time during the meeting.
